Decorated Naval Officer Wins Backing of Bi-Partisan Group Fighting to Deliver Quality Choices in Public Education for All Michigan Students

LANSING –The Great Lakes Education Project (GLEP) today proudly endorsed Andrew Beeler, a decorated veteran of the U.S. Navy and current member of the Naval Reserves, for state House of Representatives. Beeler has demonstrated a real and lasting commitment to Michigan students, and reforms to Michigan’s public education system that put the needs of students first.

“The Great Lakes Education Project is proud and excited to stand with Andrew Beeler because he stands with Michigan’s kids,” said GLEP Executive Director Beth DeShone. “Andrew knows that every child is different and that they deserve schools that put them first, not the education bureaucracy.”

Beeler is running to represent students and families in Michigan’s 83rd state House District, covering Sanilac County and portions of St. Clair County.

The Great Lakes Education Project is a bi-partisan, non-profit advocacy organization supporting quality choices in public education for all Michigan students. GLEP strongly supports efforts to improve academic achievement, increase accountability and empower parental choice in our schools.
